Annual Fruit Sale Complete

A big "thank you" to all the supporters of the annual fruit sale. We sold a total of 284 cases of delicious Florida oranges and grapefruit.

Students earn $4.00 for each case of fruit sold into their student accounts.

Congratulations to Amanda Wilk for selling the most cases of fruit (21 cases). She received $50.00 for her efforts.

Holiday Performances

Ring in the holiday season by joining the music department for the annual holiday concert season.

The vocal and instrumental groups have been hard at work preparing a variety of holiday arrangements for everyone's listening pleasure.

The Middle School Choir /High School Choir and Band/Orchestra Concerts held on 12/02/10 & 12/07/10 will include cookie refreshments. Anyone wishing to donate cookies can bring them the night of the concerts. The High School Band/Orchestra concert will be held on 12/09/10.

Each concert will include a special raffle of a table-top decorated tree for the Middle School performances and wreaths for the High School performances. All proceeds benefit the music department general fund.

Season's Greetings and Happy New Year from the Music Department.

2011 Music Department Events

The music department would like to highlight a few events scheduled for 2011.

The popular Little Ceasars Pizza kit fundraiser is a favorite. Details forthcoming.

The Annual Music Department Dinner will be held at Creek Side Center on 4/15/11. This event showcases performances by the AHS Jazz Band and Orchestra, and will also include performances by the AHS Chorale. Enjoy a stress-free tax season by filing early and joining us for some great food, terrific music, and friendly conversation.
